THE GAZETTE.

THURSDAY EVE'NG., NOVEMBER 26.

OFFICE OF THE GAZETTE, ALEXANDRIA, Va., Nov. 23, 1874.

Statements of indebtedness are being sent to subscribers of the Gazette who are in arrears, and a notice stating that payment in advance will be required hereafter has appeared in all the issues of the paper. The subscription rates on the first page of each edition furnish a guide to the payment to any particular date, so that there can be no reason for complaint if some who may desire it fail to receive the Gazette af ter the 1st of January, 1875.

THE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS have been ratified by a majority of over 25,000. The changes are about as follows: Magisterial districts instead of townships; each county to be divided into so many magisterial districts as may be deemed necessary, not less than three; in each district there shall be elected one supervisor, three justices of the peace, one constable, and one overseer of the poor, who shall hold their respective offices for the term of two years; each magisterial district shall be divided into as many school districts as may be deemed necessary; provided, no school district shall be formed containing less than one hundred inhabitants; in each school district there shall be elected or appointed annually one school trustee who shall hold his office three years; provided, however, that at the first election under this provision there shall be elected three school trustees, who shall hold their office one. two or three years. The present system of keeping up the roads is abolished, and of course we fall back on the old plan.

In each county there shall be elected one sheriff, one attorney for the Commonwealth, one clerk, one county treasurer, and as many commissioners of the revenue as may be provided by law; and there shall be appointed, in such manner as may be provided by law, one superintendent of the poor and one county surveyor; and there shall be appointed, as now provided by law, one superintendent of schools. All regular elections for county and township officers shall be on the 4th Thursday in May, and these officers shall enter upon the discharge of their duties on the 1st of July next after their election. All county officers are elected for four years, except clerk of the court, who shall be elected for six years.

The schedule for these constitutional amendments provides: That the legally constituted officers of the several counties and townships at the date of the ratification of these amendment by the people, shall continue to discharge the dunes of their respective offices until the officers provided for by these amendments shall have been elected or appointed and qualified. And the impression is that a general election will take place next May for all county and township officers, including representatives to the House of Delegates.
